

Alcornoque

COUNTRY: Argentina | REGION: Mendoza

ALCORNOCQUE

The cork oak is a fundamental figure in winemaking. When we think of trees, we usually remember the vine, for its essential role, and the oak for its delicate and subtle aromatic contributions, but we rarely remember the cork oak, the tree that provides none other than the elemental material for the elaboration of the cork, firm and vital companion of the wine.

LINE CLASSIC

Young and simple wines to be enjoyed every day.

Variety: Red, White

LINE ESTATE

Estate bottled and handpicked grapes from our vineyards located in Mendoza. Young and unoaked wine. Fresh entry, thanks to its natural acidity, fruity sensation and round tannins. It's a well balanced wine with a clear varietal character.

Variety: Malbec, Moscato, Cabernet Sauvignon

LINE RESERVE

Estate bottled and handpicked grapes from our vineyards located in Mendoza. We choose our best lots to produce the Reserve line.

This wine rests for eight months in French oak barrels that give silky tannins, hints of spices and smoke, and a delicate aroma of ripe red fruits.

Variety: Malbec
